THE SPEED ICEBREAKER!

Internationally experienced Vodacom Durban July jockey available. On a Gr1 roll. Former Zimbabwe Champion. Fit as a fiddle and can ride at any weight mark.

That's the advertising brief we suggested to Ryan Munger after the 25-year-old had put the cherry on the top of the first phase of his burgeoning career with a blockbuster ride to win the Gr1 SA Fillies Sprint, brought to you by The Witness, at Hollywoodbets Scottsville on Sunday.

Former Durban July winning rider Stuart Randolph's nephew announced his arrival on the new generation top-jockey scene with the quickest 1200m on the four-pronged Gr1 speed raceday.

In his typically modest demeanour, Ryan heaped all the praise and credit on Singforafa and her top conditioner, Come Spies.

"She is really quick and the 1200m is probably slightly beyond her optimum trip. But Mr Spies had her really well and fit and all credit must go to him and to this gutsy filly who beat a super high quality field," mused Ryan as he explained how the race unfolded.

"Straightforward is the only way I can explain the race in simple terms. I just went through the paces and kept her balanced. To her credit, she showed a big heart and just kept finding," he enthused.

We asked why there was no victory salute for our hardworking photographer, Candiese Lenferna?

"You asked when exactly I thought I had the race in the bag. Let's say at the 20m mark! She is so quick, but has a short range from top gear to neutral. She can stop quite quickly. So while I felt that this could be my big day, I decided not to try and showboat and end up red-faced and in trouble. Rather keep my head down and enjoy the moment in the winner's enclosure," he laughs as he says she ran all the way to the wire.

Interestingly, Singforafa had run third in the 2020 renewal of the SA Fillies Sprint and third the previous year in the Allan Robertson. This underscored Ryan's thinking that she may be a few metres short of her blitzing best at 1200m.

He thanked the Come Spies Racing Team and said that loyalty was the cement in the relationship.

"A great part of riding successfully is the confidence of knowing that the trainer is behind you. Mr Spies could have taken me off Singforafa for the Gr1 as I had two unplaced runs on her prior to Sunday. So I am glad I could play my small part in seeing the champagne moment all work out for him and his son Xander, who is the owner."

Ryan was engaged to ride Durban July entry Johnny Hero for Tyrone Zackey in the Jubilee Handicap on Sunday – but after the rescheduling of the Hollywoodbets Scottsville meeting had to surrender the ride to Kabelo Matsunyane.

“He is a nice little horse and Kabelo rode a really good race to win the Jubilee,” he adds sportingly.

As to a possible Vodacom Durban July ride, Ryan says he can ride at any weight and that he is available ‘today’.

“My last Durban July ride was on Return Flight for Mr Sean Tarry in 2019. That was the last July that had crowds on course. It’s an amazing race and everybody’s ambition to win.”

Asked about his previous closest calls at Gr1 level prior to Sunday’s sizzler, Ryan points out that during his Singapore stint in 2020, he was runner-up in the three legs of the local triple crown.

His first Gr3 wins came in the Caradoc Gold Cup with Ilitshe at Turffontein in 2017, while other notable feature wins – all at Turffontein - include the Gr3 Graham Beck Stakes with National Park and the Gr3 Pretty Polly Stakes on Palace Of Dreams.

He is particularly pleased with having cracked a Gr1 victory just six months after returning from Singapore and says that the first phase of his short career now feels complete.

“A Gr1 was always missing from my CV. One doesn’t get many quality chances, so I will remember Sunday 6 May 2021 forever!”

He adds that he feels that he has really benefited from his time and experience in Singapore.

“But I must admit at the same time that there is a lot of depth in the South African jockey pool, and many of the jobs I may have had before I left have been filled. So it’s been a hard slog trying to break in again. But nothing worthwhile in life comes easy,” he adds maturely.

While based in Gauteng, he has been focussing on KZN as a second province.

“I enjoy the Cape and Eastern Cape, but in the latter as an example, most of the stables have existing good stable riders. So I was flying down for light rides or second and third stringers. It’s an expensive exercise, too!”

We asked if he’d ever consider going back to Singapore?

“My plan is to try and get into the SA top ten next season and build myself up further. I really enjoyed the professionalism in Singapore. In South Africa, as a jockey you feel more like a worker – it’s a job. Whereas in Singapore you are seen more as a sportsman. They are so organised and professional in all respects. I think the future is exciting and I’d like to believe that I will be riding overseas again, yes!”

We put the South African lifestyle versus Singapore to Ryan and asked him to tell us what the differences are.

“Covid has changed the world. Singapore is a gateway to Asia and the world. It’s beautiful and clean and ordered. But South Africa is our home and we love it – despite the loadshedding and other challenges.”

He explains how he and wife Kelsey lived to an ordered routine in Singapore.

“One gets into a schedule or a timetable – it’s very comfortable. If racing had to return to twice a week there I would definitely try and get back. The cost of living is quite high. Here in South Africa, it’s still affordable to be able to eat out and live quite nicely.”

The Durban-born Munger, who was inspired to follow in the footsteps of his jockey-uncle Stuart Randolph, enrolled at the South African Jockey Academy in 2011.

He was crowned Zimbabwe champion jockey in the 2017/18 season.

Ryan is talented, educated, enthusiastic and ambitious. Weight is not an issue for him.

Enquiries regarding his availability in any region – please contact Wade Viljoen 064 685 6946.

This is a competitive Maiden Plate for the girls with numerous horses having a decent chance of winning. The tentative first selection is BACKSTOP from the Tony Rivalland yard. She showed very good improvement when finishing second in her last start over 1400m at Hollywoodbets Scottsville. The manner in which she stayed on at the finish that day was encouraging. The daughter of Pathfork is having her peak run and should be cherry-ripe. From her mid-field barrier position, she may be the one to side with. INDIGO MOON ran on strongly over this C&D to finish second, four weeks ago. The slight concern is that she has to overcome the widest draw. Richard Fourie knows her well and the combination merit healthy respect. DIAMOND GIRL ran a good race when finishing third with the blinkers fitted last time. It must be noted that there have been multiple winners from that form line. If seeing out the mile, she should be competitive. REGINAS ANGEL finished 1.2 lengths behind the top choice last time. The pair meet on the same weight terms and she may have to settle for the same result.

RALPH THE RASCAL is much better than his last start over 1700m on the polytrack. He has finished second once and third three times from as many starts over this C&D. The son of Gimmethereenlight takes a drop back in class this afternoon and can return to winning ways. KAROO LARK was given a peach of a ride to win his last start over a mile on the polytrack. He was given the minimum penalty for that victory and may still be ahead of the handicapper. The hat-trick is very much on the cards for the son of Ideal World. QUICK STAR should have won last time as he hung in the latter stages. The son of Oratorio is much better suited to this distance with a record of three wins, four seconds and two third place finishes from 13 attempts. He does take a drop in class and must be included in all bets. PURPLE PERSUASION is a filly taking on the males. She was ridden to perfection when winning her last start over this C&D. The daughter of Master Of My Fate is in a good space and with a bit of luck in running, she should give the males a run for their money.

COSMIC HIGHWAY showed some signs of needing his last start in the Grade 3 Godolphin Barb Stakes. He was super-impressive when winning the Grade 3 Cape Nursery in his penultimate start. The manner in which he finishes off his races suggests that he will love the step up to the 1400m. The son of Gimmethegreenlight should strip much fitter this afternoon and from his good draw of three, he should be the one to beat. AJ'S CAPTAIN won a good race when winning his last start over this C&D. He set the pace that day and cruised to victory. The son of Futura takes on stronger today, but he looks to have some ability and may be up to the task at hand. IMILENZEYOKUDUDUMA produced an eye-catching debut effort over 1200m on this course. He was drawn widest of all and finished his race off strongly. The son of Dynasty would have gained from the experience and with the natural improvement that is expected, he should give a good account of himself. CONQUER THE ENEMY was friendless in the betting market when finishing second on debut. He would have come on from the run and should be right there.

TRISTFUL is much better than his last start in the Grade 2 WSB 1900. He raced wide around the turn that day and understandably lacked a finish in the straight. All four of his career victories have come on this course. The son of Trippi is having his peak run today and should be cherry-ripe. He jumps from a good draw of three and Gavin Lerena may be able to get the best out of him. CROWN TOWERS never had his own way in front in the Grade 2 WSB 1900. His two victories prior to that outing were eye-catching. If allowed to dictate matters this afternoon, he should be involved in the fight to the finish. CAPOEIRA'S last start in the Grade 1 Horse Chestnut Stakes can be ignored as he was reported to be fatigued. He finished 0.2 lengths behind DOUBLEMINT in his penultimate effort. He is 2.5kgs better off at the weights today and that should be enough for the tables to be turned. TREE TUMBO was given a peach of a ride when winning his last start over 1600m on the Vaal Classic course. He is in a good space and if all went well with his travels, he should earn a cheque.

ZARINA should have finished closer to Captain's Ransom in the Grade 2 WSB Fillies Guineas. She was carried outwards at the 400m mark by FREESTATE STAR that day which didn't help her chances. The daughter of Master Of My Fate has won twice and finished third once from as many starts over this distance. With a bit of luck in running, she can return to winning ways. FREESTATE STAR was not disgraced when finishing third in the race referred to above. She has won once, finished second once and third once from as many starts on this course. Warren Kennedy takes the ride and the combination cannot be ignored. FAVORITA should have won last time as she hung in the closing stages. It must be noted that the form of that race has been franked. She makes her course debut today and if suited to the track, she should be right there at the finish. WYLIE WENCH hails from the visiting Mike and Adam Azzie stable. She raced from a handy position last time, but found one too good in the form of Way Of The World. She is having her second run after a rest and should strip much fitter.

HOWELLS SAYS...

Race 2: QUEPID (4) – Her last run over further is being ignored and she can finish in the money.
Race 7: TRIP TO AFRICA (6) – He is in a competitive race but will give a good account of himself.
Race 8: SPYDAS CORNER (8) – He is racing confidently and must have a say.
Race 9: DON'T TOUCH ME (13) – He is having his first start for us, has been showing some nice work and can run into the money from a wide draw.
